MAN ATTACKING HIS WIFE IS CAPTURED

John Huba, 37 Years Old, Who Terribly Slashed Mother of 11, Wanders Back to Scene of Alleged Crime

IS HELD AT A HEARING

Arrested Yesterday By Constable E. E. Miller of North Bethlehem Township, Taken to Washington, Tried, And Is Held For Court

John Huba, aged 37, who made a murderous assault on his wife at the Huba home on a farm near Odell, on Friday, October 10, was placed under arrest yesterday by Constable E. E. Miller, of North Bethlehem township. Huba was taken to Washington and immediately arraigned before Alderman J. F. Carmichael, who held him for court under $2,000 bail on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. Mrs. Huba was badly slashed about the neck and face, eight stitches being required to close the wound on her neck. She has practically recovered from her wounds and is back at her home, providing for her family of 11 children, the oldest of whom is 17 years.

Following his brutal assault on the woman, Huba made his escape. Feeling confident that his return would be only a matter of time, officers had kept a close watch on the Huba home and that district. Huba was discovered yesterday by Constable Miller.

Huba is said to have been drinking heavily and failed to support his family. He returned home on the morning of his attack on Mrs. Huba in a sultry mood and attacked her.

Abandoning his wife after his assault, to make his escape, Huba left her alone with her small children. Her predicament was discovered and officers notified—who hurried to the home at once. Mrs. Huba and her smallest children were taken to Washington and cared for until she recovered sufficiently to go back to her home.

Mrs. Huba has supported her large family for some time by raising poultry, conducting a small dairy and raising stock.

There will be an initiation of the members of the C. C. C. Class of the Lutheran church of Charleroi, Pa., the initiation being put on by the C. C. C. Class of St. Luke's Lutheran church of Pittsburgh, Pa., on Friday evening, October 24, at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present 11812*

TO CELEBRATE THE NEW ROAD OPENING

Plans have been completed by the Forward and Elizabeth Township Good Roads Association for a big celebration to be held on Monday, October 27, to mark completion of Section 1, Route 181, a portion of a Pike's Peak ocean-to-ocean highway, near Monongahela. The celebration will be inclusive of a parade and banquet. Led by the Monongahela High School band, the paraders, consisting of more than 500 school children from the district, will assemble at 2 o'clock at Seventh and Chess streets, Monongahela, and will march up Main street, over the Monongahela bridge, and from there to Sunnyside, thence to Gallatin, where addresses will be made probably by prominent men who have been invited, i. e., officials of the Pennsylvania Highway department, the Allegheny County commissioners, Congressman J. Clyde Kelly, state senators, and representatives and highway boosters all over the old Glade Trail road. Following the speeches, a banquet will be held in the new road.

The new road, which will be thrown open to the public on October 27, is nearly two miles in length, running east from Monongahela, between Axleton and Sunnyside, Section 2 of the same route, which will take the highway through Ella Hollow to the Westmoreland County line, has at once been started. Another section, which will link West Newton and the road.

YOUNG MAN CONFINED TO HOUSE ACCIDENT RESULT

Andrew Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ray of Highland avenue, North Charleroi, is confined to his room as the result of an automobile accident, which occurred Tuesday noon near the West Side street car barn. Ray was driving a truck for the L. J. Mitchell Motor Sales garage at the time, and something went wrong with the steering apparatus and the truck crashed into a telegraph pole. He was taken to the office of Dr. A. S. Sickman, given medical attention, and later removed to his home in a badly bruised and lacerated condition.

RIVER ROAD IN NEW PROGRAM

Out of the three and one-half million dollar bond issue which is proposed for Westmoreland county, and which the voters will pass upon at the coming election November 4, Recreational township will get fifteen miles of new highway.

This schedule will include the building of the river road leading from Webster to the Allegheny line at the Ella mine, a distance of one and one-half miles.

BOTTLES, STONES TRUMPS, BRITISH ELECTION CAMPAIGN

London, October 23.—Razors, bottles, wrenches, and stones figured in the British election campaign today. Violence reminiscent of the days of suffragettes and the Irish disturbers marred meetings in many constituencies.

A 22-year-old Dulwich man was sent to the hospital in a critical condition with a razor gash from mouth to ear, attended in a melee designed to break up a Conservative meeting. In South London a man was knocked unconscious with a bottle and several others were severely injured by violence in the hands or necks.

Uniontown Cops Too Friendly To Bootleggers

Uniontown's police force is reported to be on the verge of a shakeup as the result of being too friendly with women of unsavory reputation, and the city's bootleggers. Two members of the force have already received their walking papers from Chief of Police John Wall, and others are said to be in line for the same thing after an investigation was started a few days ago.

Both Chief Wall and Mayor Warman cautioned the men against drinking friendship to bootleggers. Community with women. The slightest violation of the moral code will mean instant dismissal, both told the officers. Under no circumstances will they tolerate in Uniontown such tactics as are said to be used in Connellsville, where women of questionable character have been used for the purpose of procuring evidence in liquor violations and against members of the police department.

Uniontown's police force must maintain proper dignity and self-respect. They must be able to catch violators of the law without the aid of female stool-pigeons. No officer can hope to retain the respect of the community, nor is he of any value to the force, if permitted by his superiors to become too familiar with certain types of men and women.

Monongahela Chapter Of Royal Arch Masons Formed Half Century

Royal Arch Chapter No. 219 Free and Accepted Masons, of Monongahela, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its organization at Monongahela yesterday.

There was a special session at 2:30 o'clock p. m., in the Masonic hall, which was attended by Most Excellent Grand High Priest Companion John M. Core. Other grand officers and guests were present. Last night a banquet was enjoyed, held in Markell hall, that was attended by more than 300 Arch Masons.

EPISCOPAL FOLK IN MONONGAHELA

A large number of members of St. Mary's Episcopal church and their friends have signified their intention of attending the Halloween party and masquerade dance being held by the Young People's League of St. Paul's church, Monongahela, tomorrow night.

The affair will be staged in Markell hall in Main street, above the Woolworth Five and Ten. Those who desire to attend will meet at the Myford Hotel, Seventh street, at 7:45, where a number of machines, donated by various members, will convey all to Monongahela.

BUTLER EAGLE ENTERS FINE NEW BUILDING

The Butler Eagle, published at Butler, celebrated its occupancy of its beautiful new publishing building by issuing, on October 17, a forty-page "New Home Edition." The Eagle, founded in 1869, is published by the Eagle Printing company, composed of Levi M. Wise, president and treasurer; Mrs. Bertha Laing Wise, secretary and business manager; John Laing Wise, managing editor.

The new building of the Eagle is a handsome two-story structure completely equipped for a modern newspaper plant and printing business. No pains or expense were spared to make it one of the most up-to-date plants in the county. The Eagle under the management of the Wise family has become one of the leading newspapers in Western Pennsylvania.

TRIBUNE FIGHTS ATTEMPT TO SHUT OFF RADIO SERVICE

Chicago, Oct. 23.—In an editorial entitled "A. P. Tries to Shut Off Radio Service," the Chicago Tribune today again challenged the right of the Associated Press to prohibit member papers from broadcasting news of election bulletins to which the news agency is "exclusively" entitled.

The notice served on the Tribune by the Associated Press raises an issue of interest to radio users as well as newspaper managers and readers, the editorial stated.

"The notice in effect forbids the broadcasting of election news by newspapers using the Associated Press, is available to the A. P., and becomes at will news matter of the Association."

"Thus the notice referred to, if not resisted, would prevent the Tribune from sending out through its radio service broadcasting station WGN, any local election news gathered by its own reporters."

"The Tribune and other newspapers broadcasting derive no profit or tangible benefit from broadcasting which involves a considerable expenditure without direct return or material compensation. The service is maintained for such advertising value as it may have and in the expectation that the service will make friends for newspaper which gives it."

Heretofore the practice has been to flash election returns on screens in front of newspaper offices, thereby subjecting the spectators to the vagaries of the weather, the Tribune stated. Now the people can be served in their own homes by radio.

We think that this is a great addition to the comfort, convenience and interest of living in our modern world, and we are quite sure the Associated Press cannot shut it off any more than the Luddites of Nottingham could stop introduction of machinery in 1811," the editorial continued.

"In our opinion, an attempt to prevent the broadcasting of election results is bound to be futile."

It is unlikely that this new resource will injure the people the Tribune says.

"The fear resembles that of the fear of improvements in machinery and industry," the editorial stated. "Adjustments may have to be made, but a great advance in human resource cannot be defeated by anything it ought not to."

"There may be legal obstacles in the way of our giving to the public the full value of our news broadcasting service, but if so, we intend to test them in the courts, and, if possible, overcome them, as we are confident we can."

THREE MEN ARE KILLED IN A MINE EXPLOSION

Madisonville, Kentucky, October 23.—Mine officials announced today that three men were killed in the explosion which yesterday killed 17 workers at Hart Coal Incorporated mine here late yesterday.

Fourteen men escaped through an abandoned entrance or are accounted as safe in one of the shafts.

The three missing were at the level where the blast centered.

Homestead Destroyed By Flames

The Harvey Sampson homestead in Carroll township, one mile east of Hazelkirk, was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when sparks from the chimney alighted on the shingle roof and started a blaze.

Mrs. C. E. VanVoorhis, a neighbor, discovered the flames and ran to the home. Mr. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McGuffin, their two children and Mr. and Mrs. Charles West, who were visiting, were in the home.

The house of seven rooms had been occupied by the McGuffin and West families for some years while Mr. Sampson had resided there his entire lifetime. The Monongahela fire department was not called as the building was so quickly consumed by the flames and members of the household and neighbors were so busily engaged in saving the household furnishings that there was not a sufficient time for anyone to send a call. The loss will exceed $8,000.

Police Looking For Fire Bugs In The Vicinity of Reading

Reading, Pa., Oct. 23.—Police today are looking for the persons believed responsible for the fires in this section during the past week causing nearly $100,000 loss as a result of two more disastrous fires at this place this morning.

A barn and the entire season's crop, estimated at $10,000 belonging to Jacob H. Miller of Burnville, Pa. was destroyed, while the two-story barn at Shilluk, belonging to E. J. Warren Line of Reading, was apparently destroyed by fire this morning. Stock as well as crops valued at $30,000 were lost when flames swept the place. There have been eight disastrous fires in this vicinity in the past ten days and citizens demand protection of their property against the alleged firebugs.

SYSTEM FOR MON CITY

Members of the Frank Downer Post, American Legion, Monongahela, have canvassed the Main street business district and many of the homes between First and Fifth streets in Main street in the city named in the interests of the installation of the Shenandoah Unit system for municipal decorating, and have met with flattering success.

The soliciting committee has secured practically 100 per cent subscriptions. More than 150 merchants and residents in the business district have signified their willingness to purchase American flags decorating outfits which are the principal constituents of the system. The work of installing the iron housing in the curbing and sidewalks will be started immediately for it is planned to have the system displayed for the first time on Armistice day, when the ex-service men will hold their celebration in Monongahela.

NEW HOME COMES PHOENIX-LIKE FROM THE ASHES

Warren, Oct. 23.—Out of the ashes of the tragic explosion on the evening of May 5, 1923, that claimed the lives of nine of its young inmates and the assistant matron, has emerged a handsome and complete new home for the Children's Aid Society of Warren. The new home was made possible through the generosity of J. P. Jefferson and the people of Warren who gave the money after the old home on Hickory street had been shattered by a gas explosion.

The society was started 27 years ago when a woman arriving in Franklin to celebrate the Fourth of July, dropped her infant to the sidewalk in the excitement, injuring it severely. The infant could not be cared for at the hospital on the 24th.

Mrs. J. P. Jefferson took care of it and later sponsored the children's home.

River Traffic Is Considerably Detained During These Cool Autumnal Nights, But Extra Time Is Made During the Day

TOW BOATS LOOK FINE

Cargo Are Prompted and Delivered During the Past Summer—Old Employees Are Retired on the Pension List—The Names of Their Successors

Heavy fogs during these cool autumnal nights detain boats with big cargoes, but extra time is made during the day. No shortage in supplying the mills and factories has been caused, however.

Most all the tow boats in the local trade were repaired and painted during the summer, and present a fine appearance. Prospects for a big fall and winter trade is anticipated by coal shippers and steamboat men generally.

Charles Garling and William Starling, mechanical engineers, representing the James Reese Sons Company, boat builders, Pittsburgh, recently paid an official visit to the United States boat yards, North Charleroi. Their visit was in the interests of the company who secured the contract to furnish the engines for the new steamer Penora, which is in course of construction in Lock No. 4.

These gentlemen, while in North Charleroi, secured all measurements and data pertaining to the new boat and engines, the latter of the compound condensing type. The boat will, when finished, take her place in the United States Engineering Department as a harbor boat, and will be first-class in every respect. The name, Penora, has been chosen, its derivation being Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia.

The following old employees of the United States Civil Service department have been retired on the pension list: John Penyard, for many years chief engineer on the United States repair boat Slackwater. He is succeeded by Clayton Wylie of North Charleroi. Captain James T. Nutt of the same steamer reached the retirement age, but has been granted a two-year extension by the department at Washington, D. C. Captain Nutt, through his ability as an experienced riverman, and his faithfulness and attention to every required duty, both as an officer and as a mechanic, has acquired this deserved extension, and his many friends will tender him their congratulations and felicitations on his success.

The love letters alleged to have been written by Shadle to Mrs. Willow in the cell form the basis of the request for a new trial.

Team Meets California High On November 8

Under the caption "Undefeated Charleroi Team Meets California," last night's Pittsburgh's Sun says:

"Charleroi High School is one of the three undefeated W. P. I. A. L. teams in the Monongahela Valley to date, Monongahela City High School and California High School being the other two. No two of these teams have met this season, but Charleroi plays California High on November 8 at Charleroi in what promises to be the hardest-fought game played in the Monongahela section in many seasons. DOLAN TO GIVE HIS SIDE OF BRIBERY CASE

From the lips of Al (Cozy) Dolan, former New York Giant coach, the baseball world is to hear today what part, if any, he played in the alleged conspiracy to bribe Heinie Sand, shortstop of the Phillies, to aid the New York club to clinch the National League pennant in the recent season.

Of how much detail that Dolan will furnish, with counsel by Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis soon after the bribe offer was reported but since has retracted, there was no intimation when William J. Fallon, who is to bring suit on behalf of Dolan against Landis, let it be known late yesterday that his client would appear in the office of his counsel today and receive his version of the case.

The blacklisted coach also is to set forth in his own way his reasons for insinuating the suit for $100,000 damages for alleged slander, for a share in the receipts of the late world series, and for his restoration to good standing in organized baseball which Fallon expects to file in Federal court here early in next week.

The word somehow was circulated today in New York's baseball writing set, that Dolan was to make a statement in Fallon's office yesterday afternoon and for a time the noted criminal lawyer and sometime attorney for Charles A. Stoneham, Giant owner, was besieged by news mongers. Dolan was not on hand however, and the lawyer said no statement or interview had been contemplated. He agreed, however, to have the banished veteran in his office today and to have him state his answer to the commissioner's accusations.

"You will be at liberty to ask him any and all questions," said Fallon, "and I am sure he will be quite frank with you. Dolan is as innocent of any wrongdoing in this thing as you or I. He has nothing to conceal. He's not crooked in any sense of the word."

A cross fire of interrogation that should shed considerable light on the thus far none too openly handled case is being rigged up for Dolan and in their prayers last night New York baseball scribes asked that Dolan's memory be permitted to serve him well today. "I don't remember" replies will not please Cozy's pencil pushing inquisitors any better than it did Landis who thrust the coach and winter-time stage hand outside the gate of organized ball with Jimmy Connell, confessed profferer of the $500 bribe to Sand.

Many men are bent with toil, but few are positively broken by it.

FORMER STARS WILL ATTEND DREYFUSS FETE

The heroes of yesterday will mingle with the present-day stars of the diamond at the testimonial dinner which will be tendered President Barney Dreyfuss at the William Penn Hotel next Saturday evening. Among the old-timers will be three famous stars, who were members of the Pittsburgh team back in 1903, when it clashed with the Boston Red Sox for the world's series title.

They will be Fred Clark, who was the manager of the team; Honus Wagner and Deacon Phillippe. Tom McCreery, who was a member of the Louisville team when the Colonels were consiliated with the Pirates, will also be in attendance.

Among the other stars of the olden days who will be present to greet old fans will be Eddie Morris, Frank Kilgus and Jack Mumme, famous twirlers back in the eighties and nineties, Tom Quinn, Germany Smith, George England, now a police magistrate, and County Commissioner Ad Gumbert, John S. Robb, another former National League star, and former Governor John K. Tener and Dr. Mark Baldwin, other big league players, will also be present.

The banquet will be the greatest gathering of fans and old-time players that has taken place in Pittsburgh since the world's series in 1909.

MON CITY AND CALIFORNIA TO PLAY SATURDAY

The Monongahela and California football teams will clash at the California Normal grounds at California on Saturday afternoon. Neither has lost a game thus far this season. California has victories over Monessen, Homestead and Donora to its credit, while Monongahela has vanquished Bellevue, Clairton and McKeesport, showing increased strength in each game.

California will probably have an advantage in weight, but Weinman's players have considerable speed and precision, which may offset this handicap. There is a possibility that California will be minus the services of Captain Edwards, one of the best scholastic backs in W. P. I. A. L. circles.

California will have a feast of football over the week end, as on tomorrow the Slippery Rock and California Normal eleven will meet in their annual gridiron tussle, in which the Tri-State Normal school title will be at stake. Athletes of the two schools have met annually in all kinds of sports, and the contest is certain to be fraught with all the elements that go to make a tense and exciting struggle.

Gibbons said that Dempsey knew that he, Gibbons, could out-box the champion and for this reason Dempsey would not get into a ring with him in a hurry. Gibbons declared that if the two met again that he would give Dempsey a boxing lesson and then knock him out.

NORMAL TITLE IS AT STAKE IN GAME TOMORROW

The normal school championship of the Tri-State district will be decided at California on Friday, October 24, when Slippery Rock invades the Monongahela valley to try conclusions with California Normal.

California boasts wins over Kiski West Liberty and Fairmont and was defeated by the Pitt Fresh. Slippery Rock has won from Mt. Union, Tech Flebes, Edinboro Normal and Grove City Freshmen.

The records of the two contenders for the championship are about equal. Slippery Rock has clearly demonstrated her superiority in the Ohio and Western Pennsylvania sections while California has equally shown her strength by winning the normal school championship of West Virginia and Southwestern Pennsylvania, in defeating West Liberty and Fairmont. California's victory over Kiski has been discounted by her defeat by the Mount Union team.

The game Friday is one of the biggest attractions in the Monongahela valley in recent years. A large crowd of Slippery Rock rooters has made arrangements to go along with the team from Butler county.

The game is scheduled at 4 p. m. to accommodate the business men and the mining men, who may want to see the game.

THE NEW CASTLE FIGHT PROGRAM IS COMPLETED

With the signing of Bob Belford of Conway and Pik Perkins of New Castle, a member of the "All Stars" team.

John Hammer has completed the program which will throw open the fist season in the Lyceum Theater at Beaver Falls next Monday evening. The Beaver Falls promoter is starting off the 1924-25 season with a well-balanced program and has headed it with a bout in which there is more than the usual amount of interest on account of the contestants hailing from towns between which there is always lots of rivalry.

These boys are Sig Keppen of Beaver Falls and Babe Picato of New Castle. Picato kayoed Johnny Fundy in eight rounds at Ellwood City last week and Keppen scored a decisive victory over Mickey Martin at Wheeling. In the other two bouts Teddy Esterbrook of Niles, Ohio, and Art Miles of Ellwood City, middleweights, will provide the entertainment, and Patsy Flanagan, a gentleman of Esterbrook, will meet Frankie Caruso of New Kensington in the second number.

THURSTON ONE OF SOX BEST "FINDS"

Considered Star Pitcher of American League.

Efforts on the part of President C. A. Comiskey of the White Sox to obtain star outfield talent from the minor leagues, results to mind that Hollis Thurston, right-hand pitcher for the Sox, played the outfield, himself, not so long ago and did a good job of it. Just at present Thurston holds the distinction of being one of the best pitchers in the American league.

But Thurston might never have been a pitcher if a California semipro manager hadn't faced the problem of going into an important sandlot game without a dependable mound man one afternoon, two years ago. Then Thurston crossed his path and the manager had an idea. The youngster had played a great outfield, was a wonder with the bat and had a strong arm.

"Thurston was told if he would go in and pitch, he would receive $100 for his work if he could beat the other club. Thurston pitched his first game on the mound but he didn't win. He went right down the old stretch to the ninth with the score 1 to 0. Then an infielder kicked one behind him and the game was lost to Thurston's team. Thurston as an outfielder was through. Thurston as a pitcher was just beginning and it wasn't long before a scout for the St. Louis Browns saw him and Owner Ball paid a big price for the youth who could pitch, hit and play the outfield.

Thurston is a glutton for work and when he failed to get as much of it as he thought necessary, under Lee Fohl's management, he consigned Lee to the fiery place one afternoon and waivers were asked on the native son. That is how the Sox happened to get him.

While Thurston appears to be a great young pitcher, either starting or relieving games, his hitting seems to stand out. He doesn't stop at mere singles, but intersperses the base knocks with doubles and triples.

LESSON NO. 8

LIGHTING THE BATH ROOM

Have you ever watched your father shave? Does he try to keep shadows away by turning his face this way and that? Or can he shave comfortably and easily with a smile on his face like the man in the second picture? Shaving is really the best test of lighting in bathrooms. A man shaves each side of his face and under his chin, and if he is to see well, he needs a light on each side down low enough to light underneath the chin.

Wrong Right

Lighting the mirror in the bathroom is exactly the same problem as lighting the mirror in the bedroom, and two bracket fixtures are needed for good lighting—one at either side of the mirror at eye level or a little above. The fixtures should point upward and should have long dense milk-white shades open at the top to conceal the 50-watt "puls" inside.

If the bathroom is large, you may have a fixture in the center of the ceiling just like the fixture used in the kitchen. If this is properly put in and equipped with a bulb of 75-watts or more, it will furnish good general lighting all over the room on occasions when the mirror is not being used.

When sister goes to curl her hair in front of the mirror, does she find it necessary to take the bulb out of the light to connect her electric iron?

If she does, she probably does not curl her hair in the evening, because many bathrooms are lighted by only one fixture. And if your bathroom has two fixtures, and sister uses one for a curling iron, then she must twist and turn her head because she cannot see well when only one is used for lighting.

That curling iron of sister's is just one of the handy little electric appliances which should be provided with an outlet of their own—a convenience outlet 36 inches or more above the floor, so that good lighting is always ready when it is most needed.

LIGHTING THE SUN ROOM

In the sun room we usually want a ceiling fixture to give us general lighting and to flood the whole room with warm, soft light and an atmosphere of cheerfulness; we also need lighting from portable lamps for reading or sewing, or as decorative spots of light and color around the room. Do you remember the lesson which told how to light the living room? It was much the same as this, for the sun room or sun porch is really another living room in most homes.

In the sun room, however, the furniture and decorations usually require lighting fixtures which will look well with wicker and cretone and which will make the sun room feel like a sun room even after dark.

American Girls Dance Into Hearts of Parisians

BRITAIN FIGHTS SLAVE TRADE.

Though long since outlawed by the world's opinion, human slavery still exists and traffic in slaves still goes on, as is shown by Great Britain's recent decision to detail a number of fast destroyers to patrol the Red Sea and check the slave trade between Africa and Arabia. As of old, the negroes of Africa are still the chief victims. This is because the ancient institution persists among them and they still have slaves of their own face to sell. After journeying a thousand miles inland from the west coast of Africa in 1905-7, Mr. J. H. Park testified that everywhere he found two-thirds of the natives in slavery and that it was mostly slaves that were carried to the coast and sold to the white man's ships. Of course the proportion of freemen is far greater now, but within recent years there have come reports of slaves bought and sold even in Liberia and there have been very recent accounts of the importation of slaves into Abyssinia from the interior of Africa.

The race chiefly victimized was and is itself involved in the blame which at one time was widely shared by the white nations, including the United States. Our Federal Constitution made the slave half a century longer. In the earlier times New England especially was involved, Rhode Island alone having 150 ships in the slave trade as late as 1770. It is notable that Great Britain, which emancipated the slaves in its dominions as early as 1833, is still—as late as the year 1924—the action foe of the lingering traffic.

ISN'T IT PITIFUL?

The downtrodden people, whose miseries are enumerated by our Democratic and other radical friends, are spending a million dollars a day for radio equipment, two and a half million dollars a day for gasoline and probably as much more for movies, to say nothing of what is spent for chewing gum, "pop" drinks, cigarettes, face powder, etc. What a joy it is to be "downtrodden."

POTS AND PANS.

American women are not going to get very much excited over an "aluminum trust" that has given them the best cooking utensils they ever had at the lowest relative price.

David Lawrence quotes W. J. Bryan as saying that Senator Wheeler of Montana "was originally a Republican but came into the Democratic ranks during my 1896 campaign." Mr. Bryan must have referred, or meant to refer, to his 1908 campaign, for it has since been announced that in 1896 Senator Wheeler was a Massachusetts boy of fourteen.

Finland, a strict prohibition country, has been "shocked" by the arrest for drunkenness in the streets of Helsinki of Judge Kapy, president of the High Court of Appeal at Abo. But, as Finland is not Pennsylvania and no election is near, the affair was not hushed up and the spree of the learned Judge cost him $500.

The Chicago Tribune (Rep) prognosticates briefly as follows: "Coolidge probably, Davis improbably, La Follette impossible, a deadlock possibly."

Piracy is regarded seriously in the French courts even when the victim is only a "rum-runner" with no hope of (official) sympathy in America.

Senatorial dignity will not permit a resolution, but no doubt individual Senators are proud of the baseball victors of the same name.

Thrifty Wife Sells Shoe

Shortly after a traveling man returned from a long road trip he went to his closet to get out his light summer suit and white shoes. He could find but one shoe. He asked his wife about the missing shoe, but got no information. Inquiring further, he learned from his daughter that the wife had sold one of the shoes to a one-legged man who had called at the door—Kansas City Star.

Legend of the Wagtail

Here is a pretty Portuguese legend of the wagtail: "When the Virgin fled into Egypt with the infant Christ, a wagtail followed, obliterating the trail by brushing away with its tail the donkey's footprints. Our Lady therefore blessed it, giving it the power to kill the devil by attacking it."—The Wagtail.

THE OFFICE CAT

The Old Maid says, I've had no luck,
I think that I will take a trip
Out to the Isle of Man.

Why grieve because you were not born with a silver spoon in your mouth? It might have choked you to death.

A swelled head is like an over-inflated tire. It is too insecure for safety.

One of the worst things about being a candidate is that one has to read the platform all through, and try to find out what it means, and if so, why.

Are you voting Republican or Democratic this fall?

I'm letting the two parties worry about that.

Never mind, girls, about putting your bathing suits away for next summer. It isn't likely that bathing suits will be worn after this season.

Girls and billiard balls kiss each other with about the same amount of real feeling.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

The wind blew down a sign which read, "Hot Dogs—10c." A young fellow picked the sign up and handed it to the owner saying, "I see the price of your hot dogs came down, Mister."

And so it did—he got a hot dog free.

Japanese statesmen complain that their population is increasing too rapidly. A little shipment of prohibition hooch now, and then might solve this problem for them.

Accident insurance is a good thing to have without the accident.

We have yet to hear of a husband who helped with the dishes and was shot by his wife.

Hogs, says the market report, are little changed. So we observe nearly every time we go out.

Why not whine not?

There is little difference. In cheap hotels you listen to the soup and in the swell ones you listen to the cello.

HOW ABOUT HIM?

One magazine asked, "How Do You Hold Your Husband?" and one wife wrote an answer saying, "I can't hold mine. He weighs 245."

Many a boss at the office washes the dishes at home.

It doesn't seem to make the dollars come a bit easier, to nickname them berries, fish, men or bucks.

Just as we begin to feel sorry for ourselves being in the newspaper business we think of hairpin manufacturers and smile.

Suspender sales are on the increase. The national safety-first movement is having some effect.

Time to begin worrying about where our summer wages went.

Scientists now know almost as much about Mars as the layman knows about an income tax form.

Generally speaking, we do best those things which we do easily.

Her Blonde Hair Was Darkening

—But New Light-Hair Shampoo Brought Back Its Natural Rich Golden Color and Gleaming Luster

Her blonde hair was becoming dull, streaky, faded and lusterless. She had tried nearly everything to bring back its original beauty. All had failed. Then her hairdresser recommended Blondex, the wonderful new shampoo, prepared for blonde and light hair—only just one shampoo and her hair became much lighter. Then in an unbelievably short time it was the same charming blonde shade that formerly was so much admired. Her friends soon noticed the marvelous change. Now, you too, can bring back the natural color to darkened blonde hair. If your hair is already beautifully blonde Blondex will keep it that way. Acts in a perfectly natural way. Leaves no oil behind to form sticky film, on which dirt and dust collect—causing light hair to darken. Gives a wonderful thick lather. Makes hair soft and silky. No injurious dyes or chemicals. Highly recommended for children's hair. Your dealer will promptly return it if small cost if you are not more than delighted with results. Get Blondex today, at all good dealers, such as Piper's Pharmacy, Frank J. John, Mrs. Mary Carroll, and Hennings' Drug Store.

What the World Is Doing

As Seen by Popular Mechanics Magazine

One-String Instrument on Bellows Has "Voice" of a Prima Donna

Unique tones, which are said to sound like the far-away voice of a prima donna, are produced by an instrument invented by a Spanish musician.

Instrument invented by a Spanish musician. Made out of a pair of bellows with the single string stretched between a needle and diaphragm of a phonograph, it is played with a violin bow, giving the notes a singing character of charm and sweetness. A breath at the top increases the volume of the sound.

Volcano to Be Tapped to Get Steam from Nature's Boilers

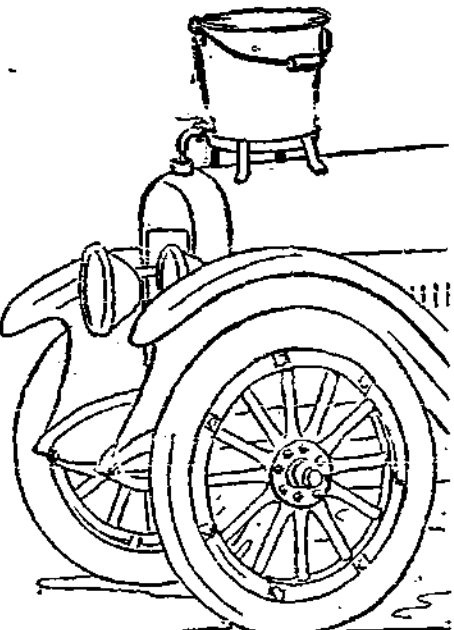

Plans are under way to pierce the sides of Mount Tatio, an active volcano on the west coast of South America, to get the steam generated by the natural fires beneath the mountain. Most of the energy will be piped out for use in making electricity. Estimates show that as much current can be produced in this manner each year as would require the consumption of a half million tons of coal in an ordinary plant. It is said the steam is so pure that it can be run directly into turbine engines without the usual costly cleaning processes. In Italy thousands of horsepower have been developed in this way.

Size of Radio Shields

When shielding is resorted to in order to eliminate interference from body capacity, etc., it is much better to use a small shield for each instrument than a large one covering the whole panel, as a loss of efficiency, due to intercapacity between the instruments, is likely to result in the latter case.

Radiator-Filling Pail

An ordinary pail fitted with legs, as shown in the drawing, will prove useful around the farm garage as it saves much work and prevents one from spilling water all over the radiator and hood. The pail should be of large size and a faucet is soldered in the side near the bottom. Four legs, cut from heavy sheet metal, are riveted to the underside of the pail, and these are covered with soft material in order to prevent scratching the hood. Ordinary cloth wound on the legs and tied with cord will serve to make non-scratching feet, but electrician's tape is better, if available. In use, the pail is filled with water, set on the hood so that the faucet comes directly over the radiator-filling hole, and as much water as necessary is then let into the radiator by opening the faucet.

Planing Window Frames

For fitting windows and doors, etc., the device shown in the illustration will be found very handy.

It consists of a long board of any suitable size at hand, a short piece of wood nailed to this at an angle of about 45°, a vertical brace for the angular piece, and a block nailed to the base at the bottom of the brace. The upper end of the angular piece or stop is notched deeply to take the ends of the windows or doors, and the block is notched in the same manner. The method of using the device to be planed is apparent from the illustration. The device will be found convenient not only for doors and windows, but for other similar work too large for the vise, and it can easily be carried from room to room.

Close-Up Photos

By using an auxiliary lens, commonly known as portrait lens, close-up photos can be taken, as this lens shortens the focus. The same results can be obtained, in many cases, without such a lens if it is possible to pull out the bellows of the camera a little farther than the last mark on the scale. By doing this good pictures can often be taken at as close a range as three feet. If there is a stop on the focusing scale, this can often be filed off to permit extending the bellows without affecting the use of the scale for its purpose.

COULD NOT WALK BECAUSE OF PAIN

Bad Case of Woman's Illness Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Missouri.—"I had such a bad case of rheumatism that I could not walk because of the pains from inflammation. My back was all done up. I could not go up stairs because of weakness, and no one could possibly be in worse shape than I was. I have taken twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am a strong woman now and can work down any of my neighbors. They wonder how I can do so much work. I dare say that I have recommended your medicine to a thousand women. A little book was thrown at my door, and that is how I first learned of it."—Mrs. D. M. BEAUCHAMP, 1104 Morrison Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Letters like this bring out the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 88 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Is Your

SPINE

In Line?

Perfect alignment of the spine means per-fect health. Imperfect alignment means that one of more of the ver-tebrae of the spine are out of the natural po-sition. This produces pressure on the deli-cate nerves at the point where they leave the spine. Because of this the brain cannot get the full amount of life force over them.

Whatever part of the body, whether it is the heart, stomach, lungs, kidneys, etc., that is supplied by a pinched nerve is bound to be weak, because every cell in the body receives its life force over the nervous sys-tem, and if the nerve is pinched its life force is decreased.

Chiropractic Ad-justments will put your spine in line and health follows. Ask about our Neurocalometer Service

ENRICH YOUR BLOOD

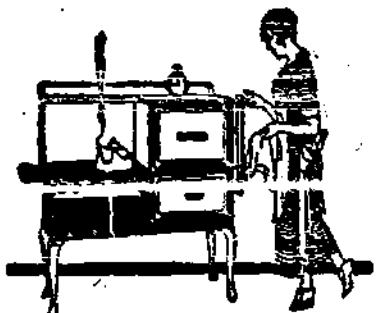

With organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—it's like the iron in our blood and the iron in snow-capped mountains and apples—we do not blacken or injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. Entirely dif-ferent from metallic iron. It quickly helps put strength into your muscles and color into your cheeks. Get your doctor to make your red blood count today, then take Nuxated Iron for a few weeks and watch your red blood cor-puscles increase—how much purer and richer your blood becomes; how much stronger and better you feel; what a difference it makes in your nerves. Millions of people annually are using Nuxated Iron. Your money will be re-fund if you do not obtain satisfactory results. In tablet form only. At all druggists.

Savings Deposits

There are many people who delay the opening of a Savings Account because they feel that a small deposit will not be welcome and that it is better to wait until they have accumulated a considerable sum. Too often they keep on waiting.

The First National Bank wants you to know that we welcome Savings deposits in any amount from $1.00 upwards and that the size of the account does not matter so much. The REGULARITY with which you save means more to us—and to you—than the amount deposited.

The Personal Side

Dr. Anna G. Stephanko of Fifth street, is a business caller in Pittsburgh today.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillia Baker of Washington avenue are the parents of a daughter, born yesterday.

Miss Nelle Ludwig of Fallowfield avenue, visited in Monongahela last evening for a short time.

Mrs. John T. Irwin and son Jack of Ninth street, have returned home after a few days' visit with relatives in Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muckle of Oakland avenue are the parents of a daughter born this morning at 3 o'clock.

Misses Edith and Alice Picinotti of Crest avenue, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rossi of Allenport last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Urban of McKean avenue, attended an evening performance at one of the Pittsburgh theatres.

Guy Michener of Lookout avenue, attended the afternoon performance of "Annie" at the Nixon theatre, Pittsburgh, which is featuring Billy Burke, yesterday.

Donald Warren of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Mildred Minck of Bladock, James Cady of Monessen and Delbert Minck of California were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Veyl Minck of McKean avenue Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Julia O'Donnell, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. James O'Brien of North Charleroi, for the past six weeks, has returned to her home in Montpelier, Ind. Mrs. O'Brien accompanied her as far as Pittsburgh.

George Wildman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wildman of Isabelle avenue, North Charleroi, who recently underwent an operation on his left hand in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, and since that time has been confined to his home on account of grip, is very much improved and able to be up and around.

In Society's Realm

Mrs. Thomas P. Sloan entertained the members of the Tuesday Evening 500 club at her home in Monongahela avenue, North Charleroi with a masquerade party. The members appeared in many various costumes and a very enjoyable evening was spent in the prettily decorated home. The luncheon served by Mrs. Sloan was in keeping with the Halloween season. Card favors were awarded to Mrs. J. F. McCarthy and Mrs. Joseph Connell.

With Mrs. James Fillingham of Third street as hostess, a very interesting meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church was held yesterday afternoon in the church school room. There was a very good attendance present and the time was spent in sewing. A short business discussion took up the first part of the afternoon, during which time arrangements were made for the annual food sale at Thanksgiving. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fillingham assisted by Mrs. J. H. Chilton.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Metz of Railroad street, North Charleroi, the occasion.

Love Peacemaker Favors For Matrimony Inclined

Judge Thomas F. Graham of San Francisco, famous in the Far West as "the great reconciler" because of his great success over many years in divorce courts in bringing together estranged couples, has just issued 10 "beware" for prospective brides and 10 "beware" for would-be bridegrooms. Two of them are given above.

Here thirty-five guests assembled Tuesday evening to celebrate Miss Violetta's thirteenth birthday anniversary. The guests were all masked and dressed in many various costumes. The affair was quite a surprise to the honored guest, who was presented with many gifts. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music and was brought to a close by the serving of a dainty luncheon by Mrs. Metz assisted by her daughter, Miss Frances.

The members of the Essloral club of Belle Vernon, were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Alfred Wildman of Isabelle avenue, North Charleroi, last evening with a children's dinner served at 6 o'clock. The menu, which was highly enjoyed by all, consisted of many seasonable delicacies. After the report, the members spent the balance of the evening in sewing. Those present were as follows: Mrs. Eva Snyder, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Mary Kelly, Mrs. Anne Kelly, Mrs. Mary Provins, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Guder, Mrs. White-law, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Partridge and Mrs. Erensky all of Belle Vernon.

OLD AGE PENSION ACT SUPPORTERS MEETING TODAY

Harrisburg, Oct. 23—Supporters of the old age pension act, declared unconstitutional by the Dauphin County court and appealed to the State Supreme court, met here today to discuss the program of action with regard to the development of old age assistance and the continuance of the fight before the higher court to determine the validity of the law.

Many speakers of nationwide prominence in labor and sociological circles will make addresses at the meeting and stress the need for this kind of humanitarian legislation. County boards and county commissioners, and all organizations interested in the old age pension law were here for the meeting.

The Massachusetts Commission on Old Age Pensions was to be in attendance in a body and representatives of the Fraternal Order of Eagles which sponsored the bill creating the old age pension commission were taking part in the conference.

Among the speakers addressing the gathering were: Governor Packer, James H. Maurer, chairman of the commission, Dr. John B. Andrews, secretary, American Association for Labor Legislation, Rev. Wm. L. Mudge, executive secretary, Pennsylvania Federation of Churches; Thomas Kenedy, president, District No. 7, United Mine Workers; John O'Toole, secretary, representing the Eagles; Dr. I. M. Kubinow, director, Jewish Welfare Society, Philadelphia; Nathan F. Walker, chairman, State Association of County Commissioners, and representatives of the assistance boards in Lycoming, Berks, Beaver, and Washington counties.

High English Cliffs

Beachy head is one of the highest of the English cliffs. Its summit is 594 feet above the sea. The Welsh coast has several cliffs higher than Beachy head. Holyhead is 719 feet and Great Orme's Head 675 feet. Catherine's cliff, Isle of Wight, beats all these. It is 830 feet high.

Blackberries in America

Some variety or other of blackberry is cultivated in all parts of the United States except in southern Florida, part of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and sections of the western states where hot dry winds destroy the ripening fruits.

The chances are that if it had not been the serpent that tempted Eve, something else would have risen to Metz of Railroad street, North Charleroi, the occasion.

BLOCK CREPE IS USED TO FASHION TWO PIECE SUIT

A smart and practical suit is fashioned of the popular block crepe in grey. It features a set-in vest and long tight sleeves. A small black felt toque worn with it gives the contrasting touch.

CHECKUP IS TO BE MADE, IT IS ANNOUNCED

Harrisburg, Oct. 23—Secretary of Labor and Industry Richard H. Latsburg, who recently succeeded Dr. Royal Meeker today announced he has asked that a survey of state institutions be made at once by inspectors of his department to check up on their observance of the laws enforced by the department as a whole. Violations in the past on the part of state institutions has been said to have caused frequent flarebacks at the administration and as such conditions have been ascertained by the inspectors, a meeting with Secretary Ellen Potter and Secretary of Health Miner will be arranged to determine upon a concerted policy of administration.

The particular laws which are enforced by the department of labor and industry and which have a bearing on management of the state institutions are: Fire and panic act, boiler law, elevator law and the various safety codes as well as the woman's law.

State institutions in the past have been inclined to regard themselves above the law in certain respects and the result has been embarrassing where efforts are made to enforce laws designed to curtail unsafe practices in localities where these institutions are located. It is not supposed, however, that a large percentage of the institutions disregard the factory laws and the labor laws.

Ways of "Milk Snake"

That is a snake known as the "milk snake" which is found around dairies, and the belief that it sucks milk from cows seems to be founded on fact, although the occurrence is much less common than is generally believed.

Davis' High Positions

Jefferson Davis president of the Confederacy, held high offices in the federal government previous to the secession of the southern states. He was a member of congress, secretary of war and United States senator.

Beeswax Substitute

A substitute for beeswax has been discovered in Madagascar. It is made from the leaves of the raffia palm by reducing the dried leaves to small bits and boiling them. The wax thus produced is like beeswax.

Every Generation Requires a Few More Comforts

Women of today have many advantages their mothers and grandmothers did not enjoy—

Including their own bank accounts.

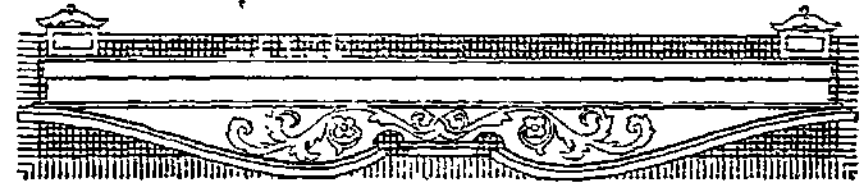

The growing importance of woman's position as purchasing agent for the home and family has made plain the need for her to keep close tabs on money spent, and thus incurred.

A bank account of her own is the answer.
